This is a vertical, high-contrast, black and white image. It appears to be a close-up of a textured surface, possibly a book cover or endpaper. The image is characterized by a dark, irregular border on the right side, which is very thick and black. The main area of the image is a lighter, textured surface with various shades of gray and black, suggesting a rough or aged material. There are several small, dark, irregular shapes scattered across the surface, which could be holes, imperfections, or debris. The overall appearance is grainy and aged, with a strong sense of texture and depth.

MOTHERS!

Do you have trouble getting Shoes that will stand your boy? Does your boy wear out more Shoes than all the balance of the family together? Well, I have a shoe that will put a stop to that. Bishop Captured.

On Saturday Joe Williams captured the negro Bishop, who escaped from the Columbia office on Saturday, yesterday morning. The negro boarded freight train No. 74 which left Columbia Sunday night. The engineer learned of the negro's presence on the train and wired from Blytheville for an officer to meet him there. Officer Williams was on hand when the train pulled in here yesterday morning about daylight. He found the negro in a refrigerator car in the part where the ice is put in. He was immediately taken in charge and landed in the guard house. A little while after he was put in the lock-up. Policeman Williams looked in and found the prisoner sitting at a table trying to bore out the bricks in the wall. He was handcuffed. Sheriff Coleman, of Richland, was notified and he sent an officer up yesterday afternoon for Bishop. A reward of $25 had been offered for Bishop's capture. The following from The State tells of Bishop's escape.

Wesley Bishop, the negro who was arrested in Jacksonville, Fla., last week on instructions from Sheriff W. H. Coleman of Richland county, charged with assault and battery and highway robbery, made a sensational escape Saturday night about 7:15 o'clock from Deputy Sheriff Martin, who had brought him back from the Jacksonville jail. Mr. Martin had Bishop handcuffed and tied around the body with a rope and when Mr. Martin got off the train with the negro at the Seaboard station he started up Lincoln street for the jail. At the corner of Lincoln and Washington streets he made a sudden dash for liberty, and to Mr. Martin's surprise, the rope which the negro was tied, slipped off without trouble.

The negro dashed down Washington street and ran across Gadsden street and on toward Wayne, disappearing in the dark. Mr. Martin took one shot at the fleeing prisoner but before he could shoot again some other negro ran between him and Bishop.

Mr. Martin gives the following description of Bishop: About five feet in height; weight, about 120 pounds; stocky build; dark copper color; very heavy thick lips; flat nose; wears about No. 8 shoe; head larger than average; not very well dressed and was wearing dark gray mixed coat when he made his escape; looks heavy and dull and talks rather slowly; has no cut, the appearance of being very intelligent.

Last night Sheriff Coleman offered a reward of $25 for Bishop's capture and will pay a smaller reward for information which will lead to his capture.

Donnelly and Hatfield.

One of the most amusing features with the Donnelly and Hatfield Minstrels this season is an old fashioned one ring circus that is certainly filled with "swiftness" and laughs. The burlesque elephants, camels and giraffes and clowning give you a lot of amusement. The roaring lion ramps and raves behind the bars of his cage, the monkeys jump, the kangaroos and the band plays. It is hilarious travesty upon the old fashioned one ring circus. The Donnelly and Hatfield Minstrels will appear here Saturday Nov. 2.

Congressman Lever Was Here.

Congressman A. C. Lever, of the Seventh District, spent a few hours in the city Sabbath on his way home. Mr. Lever is a member of the Appalachian Park Commission and he was returning from a tour of the proposed reserve. He came down Saturday night from Lenoir on the Seaboard North-Western and went on to Columbia on No. 33 Sabbath. Mr. Lever believes that the heads of the streams should be protected. It was for this purpose that the party made a tour of the proposed reserve. The Congressman is a great believer in protecting the heads of the streams and backs the plans for making a national park out of the mountains where all the great streams of this section have their source. This matter has been in congress for some time but there is much opposition to it. It is understood that the majority of the republicans oppose the plan. John Sharp Williams among the number, are opposed to creating this reserve. Mr. Lever said, however, that the sentiment in favor of the plan is growing in favor of this reserve and that he hoped to see it passed in a few years. Mr. Lever is spoken of as a possible candidate for the seat of Senator Lester, although he had nothing to say about this when here. He is one of the most popular and able members of the South Carolina legislature and would make a formidable opponent.

Miss Hamilton Friday came home from Due West Friday afternoon to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Henry, and to see her grandfather and aunt, who were here on a visit from Illinois and Oklahoma. She returned this morning.

Rev. S. J. Cartledge, G. G. Mayes, C. G. Brown and Clements Fraser and Messrs. W. D. Knox, J. E. Craig and W. B. Dixon and Dr. W. J. W. Cornwell left on No. 33 for the Seaboard this morning for Anderson to attend the meeting of synod. Rev. T. B. Craig, of Rock Hill, went yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor, of Westport, Conn., have returned, Mrs. Nattie D. Turner and Mrs. E. F. Dilligham. They were very much pleased with Chester.

Mrs. J. G. Carpenter has returned from a visit at Mooreville, Lenoir, and Hickory, N. C. She was accompanied on her visit by her sister, Mrs. George Beach, of Rock Hill.
